MARIA CHATZISTAVROU INTERIOR ARCHITECT LIME DECO

designing elegant and luxury spaces

In 2007, Greek Interior Architect Maria Chatzistavrou founded the Architectural and Interior Design studio Lime Deco, based in Athens, Greece. Her projects have achieved high press recognition from publications around the world.

Following her dreams, Chatzistavrou invests in her love and passion for interior design. Her values are collaboration, inspiration, elegance and harmony. Chatzistavrou's philosophy is to improve the quality of life of her clients by creating exceptional spaces that combine a remarkable and functional result.

Recently celebrating 12 years of work through wonderful collaborations, highly recognized projects and distinguished friendships, Lime Deco's field of expertise is interior and small-scale exterior architecture and the design of furniture and industrial objects. Its projects specialize in the interior architecture of Hotels, touristic lodgings, private villas, professional and commercial spaces. Chatzistavrou creates spaces that correspond to modern design solutions and challenges. Her designs take into consideration the protection of the natural environment and the enrichment of life. Her ideas stem from the collection of data that reflect the altered tendencies of the current market. The desire is the end result to be adapted to today's tendencies and to the trends of tomorrow, always with divergent thinking.

Lime Deco works with its clients and partners to achieve a wonderful result that connects people with their space. Each project is composed of a unique and sensitive approach to space, location, architecture and client's vision. For each project, they try to fully comprehend the client's needs and to apply design solutions to ensure that the final result justifies the deepest wishes and strengthens the stigma of the client.

Marias Chatzistavrou won the first award for the Interior Design of the "3 Caves Villa" of Caldera Houses, Santorini, during the "Hotel Design Awards 2018" event, in Greece. The project was nominated as "The Best Luxury Apartment 2018".

"Our clients are unique and that's how we treat them."
